a/b: Auto/Biography Studies is a double blind, peer reviewed journal of scholarship dedicated to expanding the discourse on life narrative in all its diverse forms. The Editors welcome submissions of academic essays that build from a theoretical framework of autobiography studies as they explore life narratives and the relationship between life narrative and other disciplines.

The journal only accepts essays submitted through its online portal, which may be accessed through the website.

a/b enjoys an “A” rating on both the European and Australian journal ranking systems. The journal was recently called “inclusive, adaptable, and fresh” in a review published in The London Times Literary Supplement.

a/b: Auto/Biography Studies is available through the academic database Project MUSE at http://muse.jhu.edu/journals/ab_autobiography_studies/ and by subscription. Subscriptions may be obtained through our website with a PayPal account or through postal mail by contacting our Managing Editor at: a/b: Auto/Biography Studies, Department of English and Comparative Literature, CB #3520, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, NC 27599-3520.
